

Work-Based Learning Program

FIRE-RESCUE-EMS

BENEFITS

- Advanced training at no Cost
- A Professional Career with Opportunities
- Certified EMT & Firefighter
- Approved College Credits
- State Income Tax Incentives

Individual Certifications

- Firefighter I
- Engine Company Fireground Operations
- Emergency Medical Technician
- Rescue Technician Site Operations & Vehicle Machinery Rescue
- Hazardous Materials Operations

4 Simple Steps to Registering

- Register in the Work-Based Learning Experiences
- Take the "World of Work" Class in Your Senior Year
- Become a Member of Your Volunteer Fire Company
- Meet the Physical Requirements of a Firefighter & Emergency Medical Technician

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

- Career Firefighter
- Physicians Assistant
- EMS Supervisor
- Emergency Medical Technician
- Fire Investigator
- Industrial Safety Officer
- Fire Protection Engineer
- Paramedic
- Forest Fire Inspector
- Emergency Room Technician
- Emergency Management Specialist
- Hazardous Materials Specialist
- Emergency Services Dispatcher
- Public Safety Officer
- Fire Prevention Specialist
- Fire Suppression Instructor
- Fire Prevention / Code Inspector
- Career Fire Chief
- Flight Paramedic
- Nurse Practitioner
- Phlebotomist
- Fire Marshal
- EMS Instructor
- Fire Investigator

Want More Information About Our Program? Call 410-638-3955, ext. 102

Name: _____ Date: _____

Address: _____ E-mail: _____

Programs: Fire / Rescue & EMT-B Track

Contact Numbers: (H): _____ (W): _____ (C): _____

School: _____ Grade: _____ Guidance Counselor: _____

Are you a member of a Harford County Volunteer Fire Company? Y N If yes, please list: _____

MAIL TO: Abingdon Fire Company, 3306 Abingdon Road, Abingdon, MD 21009, Attn: Donna Geisel